IMMENSE GROWTH

Of Our Commerce as Shown By The United States Statement of Trade.

The War Department has made public a statement of the trade of the United States and all her colonies under military control, and with Cuba as well, for seven months of 1899 ending July 31, making comparison with the year 1898.

The exports of the United States to Cuba for the seven months were $14,116,093 in 1899, against $4,455,937 in 1898. Imports into the United States from Cuba for the same period were $19,976,976 in 1899, against $12,474,770 in 1898. Exports from the United States to Porto Rico for the seven months were $2,299,221 in 1899, against $56,110 in 1898. Imports into the United States from Porto Rico during the same time were $3,379,944 in 1899, against $2,253,800 in 1898. Exports from the United States to the Philippine Islands from January 1 to July 31 were $386,100 in 1899, against $67,736 in 1898. Imports into the United States from the Philippines for the same period were $3,274,134 in 1899, against $2,358,877 in 1898. The trade of the United States with the various islands when stated by months shows the marvelous growth of our commerce.

Goebel and Temperance.

The attitude of the religious bodies at Owensboro, Shelbyville, and possibly some other places in the State, toward the gubernatorial nominee of the Democratic party, Mr. Goebel, does not seem to be well taken. In the first place, the opposition seems to be based entirely upon Mr. Goebel's position on the Robert's temperance bill introduced in the last Legislature. He opposed its adoption. But it is not claimed that his opposition was based upon his disbelief in the principle involved. In fact, allegations of that character could not have been set forth, as it is a well-known fact that Mr. Goebel is a total abstainer, and it is natural to assume that he is a believer in the principles he practices. In view of this fact ministers of the gospel would not accuse him of favoring intemperance or opposing a movement intended to control or abolish the liquor traffic except from proper motives. They have not done so in Kentucky Advocates.

Will He Accept?

WE LOOKED.

WHAT WE SAW.

It was Monday, the 25th inst., at Springfield that Caldwell, of Louisville, spoke in the interest of Brown to about 200, which number dwindled, as the speaker warmed with disgusting silliness. Then Brown's side partner, Taylor, was represented by Judge E. C. O'Rear, who is very desirous to be the Republican nominee for Appellate Judge of this district. The Judge made his set speech and is getting more thoroughly acquainted with Republicans, but when the time comes he will find a formidable opponent in James Marcom, of Breathitt. After these fellows had finished, Senator George Fulton, of Bardston, spoke at the court house to a big crowd of enthusiastic Democrats, and when we say enthusiastic Democrats, we mean those men who will vote for Goebel and the entire ticket. The Democratic ticket here, as elsewhere, is gaining fast.

Then we looked over in Henry county, and there Mr. Pollard, candidate for the legislature, advised us that an actual count disclosed our whereabouts of about 50 bolers. Democrats will come out well in Henry county.

What we saw in Knox county was very encouraging. There will be a few fellows there who may vote for Brown, and who may vote for Taylor. There would be many Democrats to vote either way, for Goebel will get Knox, sure.

We saw Willard Mitchell speaking at Bowling Green to an enormous crowd of Democrats eager to hear the grand old doctrines expounded once more. Everything in good shape at Bowling Green. Oh, yes, there were fellows who said the woods were full of bolers, but a count didn't find them, so the Republicans and sound money Democrats started the story that many pretending regular Democrats would bolt, but they went.

At Hopkinsville every Democrat is at work, and Taylor & Brown men make a small show down.

In Garrard, Hon. James D. Black discoursed. He went right out after those Republicans who were afraid the county would be stolen for the Democrats, and gave them to understand a fair count and an honest count would restore the State to Democratic ranks to the tune of 40,000. Black is getting right along up there where the majority will be. The idea of Taylor for Governor. The colored folk went a better man than Taylor. Do you know who Taylor is? Ask a few questions of the people who know him.

Have you heard this? Old Man Buckner, Simon Boliver Buckner, of 1896 fame, has bought a paper. It is said that the plant was worth $20,000 and the building in which it was run $5,000, making $25,000, and that the old man turned Editor Gaines out after paying him $4,700, leaving him still in debt to the amount of $29,300. That's the way Simon Boliver Buckner, the tall end of the gold kite, does things. Well, Simon Boliver has the paper and he is now looking about to find a man to run it for him, and in opposition to the party which so long honored him. This may be the ex-Governor's idea of gratitude. Honored and favored even in his old days, he buys a plant for much less than its value and would, if he could, destroy that power which gave him prominence. There are others.

Good news goes out from Democratic campaign headquarters at Frankfort. Organized perfecting and Democrats will vote in an almost unbroken rank. The question now is, what shall the majority be? Democrats will not slacken in their work and an old-time 40,000 majority is looked for.

Hallam talked about Goebel's proof as to the charge made at Bowling Green regarding his (Hallam's) brother in law; that gives strength to Goebel's proof, and we might here add, this question is settled, that Hallam was not a Confederate prisoner, and that at the age of 21 or 22 years he should have known better than to have committed the crime for which he received punishment.

Nicholas county will give the Democratic ticket an astonishing majority, and the Carlisle Mercury, with Brother Green Keller still at the helm, though with a conscience seriously affected, will be constrained to cry aloud with wonder as his name travels old Nicholas and he can not account for their coming to rescue of Democracy in these days when the Democratic party is on trial.

An Aged Suicide.

In Louisville on Tuesday Isaac Frank, aged 82 years, committed suicide. He was penniless and dependent upon a niece. Twenty years ago in Germany he was in fine circumstances, but on account of prejudice against the Jews he was compelled to leave.

The demand for good farce comedy is said by observant theatrical managers to be greater than ever, the demand for poor farce comedy being less correspondingly. With a view toward satisfying the former demand the offering of "Have you seen Smith" is made. Its appearance in this city will be an appreciated event.

THEY ARE COMING

Four Hundred Strong to Tour Kentucky For Goebel.

The Cook County Democracy Marching Club, of Chicago, 400 strong, will leave their city, October 10, for Louisville. They will be headed by Mayor Carter Harrison, who will deliver an address to the Elks while in Louisville.

They will spend two days there, will spend the night of the 12th in Frankfort, and be at Lexington on the 13th. They come in the interest of Goebel and the Democratic ticket.

John W. Highland.

The following obituary was read at the funeral of the late John W. Highland, which occurred at the "Farmington cemetery on Thursday last, conducted by Rev. G. A. Frazier, of Villa Grove: John Wesley Highland, son of Dr. D. M. and Susan Highland, was born in Montgomery county, Ky., near Mt. Sterling, April 9, 1836. Died at his home 2211 Bellefontaine street, Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 12, 1899. He was married to Clarissa Lee, Aug. 22, 1859. To this happy union were born five children—James W., Mary, Ida May, Jennie and Myrtle. Four of these children and his grief-stricken wife are left to mourn his death. Mary having preceded him to the better land.

Rallying from his intense suffering, he called his family around him, bade them good-bye, and told them that he was both ready and willing to go and that he was happy. He said he had no fear for the future. His happiest moments were when he had, a few weeks since, said good-bye to his brother and sisters in Kentucky and told them he would meet them in Heaven. One of his sisters, Mrs. Game, was present at the time of his death. After several days of intense suffering, he told his hands on his breast and fell into a peaceful sleep.

"He went not like the quarry slave at night scoured to his dungeon, but like the man, who sustained and soothed by an unflinching trust, wrapped the drapery of his couch about him and lay down to peaceful sleep." Sept. 14 1899.—Tuscola (Ill.) Review.

Have you seen Smith? The laughable farce which appears at the Grand Opera House next Tuesday evening has obtained good criticism wherever it has appeared. Mr. Wilkerson positively states that this play has opened the theatrical season of fifty theaters in the South to the capacity of each theater visited. The play has undoubtedly been one of the many successes of the past and present theatrical seasons.

The prices for the engagement here will be $1, 75c, 50c, and 35c. Seats now on sale at White's drug store. Secure your seats in advance to avoid the rush is respectfully invited.

BRYAN'S PLAN.

He will be in Kentucky the 15th and remain through the 18th. Wouldn't it be a good idea for him to come this way, that our Brownies may see what a true Democrat is and then turn their eyes on themselves?

Register to-day.

Hal Corbett, a Brown apostle talked to the people here Friday evening, that is, he talked to as many as availed themselves of the rare feast of good (?) things.

There were about 125 present at one time, but the room being a little cool and the listeners prizing health more than Brownism, thinned out to half that number.

Corbett was not thoroughly trained as a dispenser of Brown doctrine, for after he had given attention to the Democratic election law and had applied to Mr. Goebel as much calumny as he could find words with which to make himself understood, he made an attack on Taylor, saying in substance this: He was too small to be seen, for Goebel was between Brown and him.

True, Taylor is small, and the Republicans were aware of this when they desired him to get out of the way that they might nominate Yerkes. So small is Taylor that many Republicans, both white and colored, will not support him.

FIVE THOUSAND.

This is the number of people reported to have heard Hon. Wm. Goebel and ex-Senator Blackburn at Winchester Saturday; and it is further estimated that Clark county will give Goebel a majority of 500. Such a statement will not be believed by the over-zealous Brownies or Taylorites, but those who are in a position to know the facts know more about it than a fellow who has been wound up and goes a talking.

It is a fact that many Republicans, both white and black, will not vote for Taylor. White Republicans are against him because they believe him to be in sympathy with the trusts of the day. There are also few silver Republicans and they are of course against Taylor.

The colored people are against him on account of his position on the Separate Coach law; not because they would have it repealed, but because it is not enforced. The law requires coaches for the colored people the same as for the white people; no difference whatever, and because the administration for the past almost four years has been to enforce the law, and because Mr. Taylor was in a position to correct the wrong, there will be others to vote against him.

Many of the colored Republicans will not vote for Mr. Taylor will not vote the Democratic ticket, but many will. Then again, the colored people are not at all pleased with the treatment received when Taylor was approached on the Separate Coach question.

As it is in Clark county so it is in many other counties. It is that way here, and white Republicans, by persuasion and force, will fail to hold them in line, and what the Democrats may loose on Brown they will gain from the opposing party. Montgomery will give her usual majority. The Democratic ticket, with a majority of 30,000, will not be surprising.

IT IS ALL OVER BUT THE SHOUTING.

Goebel will win. He has already won. The people of Kentucky are for Democracy.

Every calumniator has done his best to stir up something on Goebel, but the more they search the brighter he appears. No dirt there. He will make an able, a dignified, a bold, aggressive Governor, and those attempting his defeat will share in a wise administration.

COUNTRY FLOODED

The Dispatch was taken to almost every man's door yesterday. Sunday as it was it abounded in untenable charges against Goebel, and wound up with the baby act, "It had been good," "It had been abused." It was the "onlyest" Democratic organ.

The people of our city were liberally supplied with Louisville Dispatches on Sunday. We do not question the veracity of the statement in the editorial columns that The Dispatch is owned by stockholders and controlled by the directors, but would just like to know who or what foots the bills of this "free distributing enterprising" sheet.

Yes, Bryan is coming, and he will say to Democrats what any other sound party man would say, "stand by your nominee and maintain your party organization."

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Finley will preach at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. Henry Garrison, of Richmond, Va., has accepted a call to the Christian church at Danville, Ky.

Elder H. C. Adams closed his meeting at See's in Bath with about 30 additions, 12 or 15 by immersion.

The ordinance of baptism was administered to seven persons who united with the Howard's Mill Baptist Church during the meeting just closed.

A Sunday School will be organized at Side View next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is the purpose of Rev. G. C. Abbott to act as Superintendent and expects to present every Sunday.

Rev. Leonard, of Louisville, who has been conducting a meeting at Howard's Mill Baptist Church, has been called to that place for one-half of his time. He preached at the Mt. Sterling Baptist Church Sunday evening and Pastor Bolin filled the pulpit at Howard's Mill.

The National Jubilee of the Christian Churches will be held at Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 13 to 20. A rate of one fare for the round trip has been named by all railroad lines in the State, tickets to be on sale Oct. 12, 14, 16, and 17, good to return Oct. 21. At least ten thousand delegates will attend. Persons contemplating attending should at once engage board and lodging in the city, as the demand will be great.

The National.

The National Hotel is now under new management. Mr. Frank Hudson having taken possession the 1st day of this month. Mr. Hudson has been in Mt. Sterling about two years, is strictly a business man, having received his training in a bank at Eminence, Ky. Mr. Hudson will have the very best help he can secure and the service will be the best. The traveling public may be assured of the same attention here as in other high grade hotels.

The hotel will be thoroughly cleaned from cellar to garret, additions will be made and it will be Mr. Hudson's aim to make The National in reality a travelers' home.

Miss Sallie Shultz will have charge of the culinary department.

Remarkable Demonstration—New York Crowded to Its Utmost.

The Olympia, with Admiral Dewey aboard, arrived in lower New York bay at dawn on Tuesday morning, two days before it was expected. The Admiral said he couldn't kill any more time on the way, and decided to come into the bay and give Capt. Lamberton a chance to put the Olympia into perfect shape before continuing up the harbor. Numerous official calls were made during the day, and vessels of all kinds crowded around the famous warship.

The reception Committee was at first upset by the Admiral's unexpected arrival, but after a conference with it was decided to adhere to the original plan, and the Admiral remained on board until Friday morning, when the formal reception began with Mayor Van Wyck's visit to the Olympia.

The demonstration over him has been remarkable. New York has been crowded and thousands had to eat and sleep on boats.

"It almost saddens me," he said, "to see what my people are doing for me. The pride and gratification are immense and I can not express the appreciation I feel." He was gratified to be again at home.

In referring to political matters he says that he has no ambition to enter politics. He says he is a sailor not a politician, and is willing to live and die in his present position. In regard to the statement of his son that he was a dyed-in-the-wool Republican, he said the young man did not know anything about his father's politics.

In communication on Philippine situation he says: "I thought that this thing in the Philippines would be over long before this, as it should have been. One great trouble out there has been that Gen. Otis has tried to do too much. I told him so. He wants to be General Governor, Judge and everything else, to have hold of all the irons. No man can do this. This is the great trouble. It is enough for a man to do one thing, to be one thing, but when a man tries everything it is easy to imagine the result.

"The fight in the Philippines should be easily ended. The people had been so badly treated for such a length of time by the Spaniards that they are distrustful. This is the great difficulty in dealing with them. Where we have met them and they have been in such contact with us as to learn that we mean to treat them well; where they have seen that we mean what we say, there is no trouble. They stand by us all the time. All of them will learn this in time. They get from under the influence of Aguinaldo or rather those people who are behind Aguinaldo, who, as I said before, is a mere tool."

E. A. Hadden's Sale.

At the sale of E. A. Hadden on the Levee pike on last Thursday stock brought low prices. Mr. W. T. Moore is quite sick at his residence on High street.

Little Howard Turner, son of Editor Squire Turner, is quite sick of pneumonia.

M. S. Tyler, who has been confined to his bed for the past two weeks, we are glad to say, is able to be up and will soon resume his practice.

Miss Annabelle Thomson is quite sick at the home of Mrs. Ann B. Her father will arrive from New Orleans to-day accompanied by the family physician, Dr. Joseph Scott.

A Jay From Jaysville.

"A Jay from Jaysville" is coming to town. He will arrive next Wednesday morning, Oct. 4, accompanied by about thirty-five other "Jays," and they will no doubt be a source of much amusement to those who witness the performance at the Opera House. Wednesday night.

"A Jay from Jaysville" is an extremely funny comedy, the leading character in which is a country "Jay," whose quaint way and country manners are ludicrous in the extreme. This play is played by Mr. Nat Bell, a comedian of unusual merit, who has visited us with other plays on several former occasions, and is well known, and liked as well, by our local theater-goers. His large supporting company is said to be a capable one, including a number of entertaining specialists.

During the forenoon a parade will be given by the "Jaysville Band," but it is said by those who have heard it, to be "jay" only in name and action, the music rendered by them being entirely metropolitan. Anyhow, they will most likely make things lively on the street while they are out, and draw a big crowd to the Opera House that night.

We endeavor to give you your money's worth. First class meat and prompt service.

Found Little Rest on Sunday.

Admiral Dewey was able to find but little rest on Sunday, though it had been planned for him to have few or no callers. He was so much exhausted that it became necessary for him to request that none of his callers shake hands with him. He received delegations from Chicago and Philadelphia and thanked them for invitations to visit the two cities, but few individual callers were admitted to his rooms. He left for Washington, where he will be received to-day by the President.

C. E. Convention at Carlisle.

The fourth annual C. E. Convention of the fourth district met at Carlisle from Friday evening until Sunday evening. There were 75 delegates present. Trimble of the Advocate arrived in time for the Saturday evening service and remained until Monday morning. En route from Cincinnati he met on the train C. C. Smith of Cincinnati, Evangelist of the General Christian Association Convention who has given a place on the program. We were fortunate in being guests of Green Keller, of the Carlisle Mercury, who thoughtfully received and hospitably entertained us. A visit with this family was a real treat. Mr. Keller and wife, their son Stanley and his wife and two babes Henry and Anna constitute the family.

The convention was pronounced a good one and the following officers were elected for the year: Rev. F. M. Tindler, Carlisle, President; Harry Allan, Winchester, Vice President; Miss Sue Caldwell, Sharpsburg, Secretary; Mrs. T. L. Goodlett, Richmond, Treasurer; Mrs. T. E. Arnold, Juvenile Superintendent; Miss Virginia Hearn, Lexington; Chair, Lookout Com.

The following from this city attended: Mrs. Mollie Turner and son Robert, Leslie McCormick, Mrs. Sid Turner, Misses Margaret Jones, Susie Burroughs, Mittie Farmer, Fissie Greer, Bruce Chiles, Pearl Bruton, Nannie Staggs, Mary Anderson, Laura Stephens.

On Friday evening Rev. J. J. Haley, of Cynthia, delivered an address, "The Cardinal Points of Christian Endeavor."

On Saturday evening Rev. J. M. Worrall, of Danville, delivered addresses, "The Effect of Christian Endeavor on the Individual Life," and "Our Place in the Country's Morals."

The subject of C. C. Smith's sermon was, "Service the Law of Happiness."

Have You Been Sick?

Perhaps you have had the flu or a hard cold. You say you are recovering from malaria or a slow fever; or possibly some of the children are just getting over the measles or whooping cough.

Are you recovering as fast as you should? Has not your old trouble left your blood full of impurities? And isn't this the reason you keep so poorly? Don't delay recovery longer but Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It will remove all impurities from your blood. It is also a tonic of immense value. Give nature a little help at this time. Aid her by removing all the products of disease from your blood. If your bowels are not just right, Ayer's Pills will make them so. Send for our book on Diet in Constipation.

SUMMER COON

Explains the Meaning of the Word "Summer."

Pays a Tribute to His Friend, W. W. Thompson.

Botterville, Ky., Sept. 30th.—Mr. Editor of the Advocate: I was called on a few days ago by a gentleman to explain something about the faze Summer, he said I used the word very often in my writings and he was not able to pulverize their meaning. I told him I would explain the meanings of the word Summer, or come it was an over site in Webster or he would of had it in the dictionary when he first commenced compounding the English language, the definition of the word Summer applies to all kinds of business from a gin sang pedlar to a matrimonial contractor we just suppose you want me or any body else to do a little job or work of some kind or another and you want it done very cheap, then of course the man that undertakes to do the work will wage the labor he puts on the job by the price you want it done for, in other words the Summer faze means short all around in all kinds and sizes of business, short people as well, men with out money are in the Summer line all ways. I am an old veteran in the Summer line my self, if you will note rise closely as we go along you hardly ever see a rich man that enters engage in a much of a social conversation with a poor man, if he does the poor man has to force it on, as a general thing people act as badly as each other as a fellow him, suppose it is the money between them that causes their sociability.

I don't no of but one moneyed man in this county that case to care for a few jokes now and then with a short fellow and that is my friend W. W. Thompson, he is a hole solo clever gentleman and don't let his wealth get between him and his fellow man if he is all right, if he only had a little Goeblism in him I would put him at the head of any man in the county no with standing me and him are not so far a part politically no way. Just a little more light on the subject would bring me in line with him. I will have a cake walk at the coon box before long in honor of Mr. Moore.

EVIDENCE FURNISHED.

Goebel Knew What He Was Talking About.

Hallam Should Not Have Attacked Goebel—Let the Matter Rest Here.

"I do not believe," said Senator Goebel, "that personalities, such as this, should have any place in a campaign where great and important issues are involved, but I want the people of Kentucky to know that when I made that statement I knew exactly what I was talking about. I have declared I did not refer to a prisoner of war, but Mr. John W. Caldwell, Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge and many others have insistently called upon me to furnish the evidence for my statement, and I want to do it."

Senator Goebel then read a sworn copy of the record of the first district court for the parish of New Orleans, stating that James Hallam, to whom he referred, had, on the 10th day of December, 1898, with intent to steal, broken into and entered the office of P. M. Gill, in that parish, and had stolen certain law books valued at about $100, and a coat valued at $16. He also read certified copies of the testimony of witnesses in the case.

B. R. Freeman, one of the attorneys occupying the office, testified that the accused had been introduced to him as a gentleman; that the accused had tried to induce him to cash a check purporting to be signed by Gen. L. H. Rousseau; that he had refused to cash the check; that the accused had remained in the office all of the afternoon, and when the witness left the office, the accused had observed the hiding place of the key of the office door. Witness also testified that on the following morning the books and coat were missing.

P. M. Gill, another attorney occupying the office, testified that the accused had spent several hours in the office and that he met the accused in the street after the theft was committed, wearing the coat stolen from the office.

F. Keller, a pawnbroker in New Orleans, testified that he had loaned the accused $15, accepting the stolen goods as a pledge for the debt. He did not know they were stolen. The accused said he was a lawyer.

Sensor Goebel also read the entries on the back of the court record, showing that the accused had been indicted for breaking and entering with intent to steal and for larceny; that he had entered a plea of not guilty; that he had been found guilty of larceny by a jury, but recommended to the mercy of the court, and that he had been sentenced to serve four months in the parish prison.

"I have been forced to make this disclosure in self-defense," said Senator Goebel, "and this shall end the matter as far as I am concerned. I have never assailed a man unless he first assailed me. I have always avoided controversies where I could, but whenever I have got into one I have dealt the best blows I could."

A Praying Wife.

The editor of the Omaha Christian Advocate writes about a railroad engineer named John Staley, whose wife was a member of a church in that city, of which the editor was formerly the pastor. The engineer was a Godless man, somewhat addicted to intemperance, yet was a very courageous and capable workman. His wife often prayed for him; prayed for his conversion and for his safety. The editor says: "One very stormy night, while the rain fell heavily, a strange feeling of rest and peace seized him. It was as if he had been released from the grip of the devil. The fireman said to him, 'John, you are looking very queer.' 'No,' replied the engineer, 'I am not, and to prove it I may hurt you if I wish.' With that utterance he threw open the throttle. The train sped toward its destination. Just a little before 4 o'clock the same terrible feeling of peace and rest came over him again and he felt himself as he would, he could not throw it off. He was forced to slow up. As the locomotive came within his control he looked along the track. He was passing through a deep cut and bounding curves. Just a little ahead, the glare of the headlight revealed a stream of water flowing by the side of the rails. The breaks were applied and the engine halted just a few feet before a washout. The premonition had saved him and his train. The conductor came forward and congratulated the engineer on his foresight, but took all the credit to himself at headquarters. Several hours later when he was home, John Staley arrived home. His wife asked him why he was delayed. "A washout," replied the engineer. "How did you escape it?" asked his wife. John stated the circumstances, when his wife simply said, "I knew it was a stormy night and could not tell what danger would beset you, so at one o'clock I arose and knelt beside the bed and prayed for you. Rattling I could not sleep and about 4 o'clock again asked the heavenly Father to protect you." This miraculous escape was wrought in answer to his wife's prayer.

A few years afterward the wife died, her husband being still unconverted; but to-day he is a thoroughly Christian man and is making his power felt for good over those around him.

CHILD GROWTH.

Make the Education Accord with It, Oppose It.

Growth focuses for a time upon one set of organs or functions, then upon another, until the whole body is developed; but all parts of the body do not grow at one and the same time. The body grows first in length, and then in girth, in breadth and depth of chest, in breadth and height of forehead, in breadth and length of face.

To make a special application of this well-known fact of periodicity in physical growth, let us observe the development of the muscles of the arm. The muscles of the upper arm—those concerned in the functioning of the shoulder joint—are ripe and ready for training at least 14 years before the muscles of the fingers. The muscles of the shoulder mature for training six months before the muscles of the elbow, and these in turn five to eight months before the muscles of the wrist, which are ripe and ready for training from three to six months before the muscles of the fingers. When we insist that a child shall begin to write by means of the finger muscles only with a small pencil in narrow spaces on ruled paper or a slate we run directly counter to the principles of growth and development that nature has so plainly written in his constitution. Must not education, to be education at all, be in accord with these principles rather than in opposition to them? The child of six years, during the first days of his school life, chooses to make large, whole-arm movements of the finger muscles. At first he requires "almost an acre" of blackboard space in which to write a few sentences. We must train the large shoulder muscles before attempting to burden the tender, undeveloped finger muscles, which are really injured by such too early strain and involved activity.

Thus we find in our best regulated kindergartens of to-day none of the finer work for the younger children. The young child is no longer required to take up the bead-stringing and pin-pricking exercises—at least not until his eyes and his finger muscles are ripe and ready for such training. In some of the more modern kindergartens the occupations and gifts are concerned with larger objects instead of those formerly used, which were of the smaller, more orthodox size—larger blocks, larger pencils, larger needles, larger beads and coarse string instead of fine thread—Forum.

Indiscreet Giving to Charity.

Indiscriminate, or rather indiscreet, giving of charity in the Texas flood district has been attended with results precisely similar to those which attended the charity distributions in the sea islands of South Carolina several years ago and those in Cuba during the past 18 months. The Houston Post says it has been found necessary to withdraw the free rations from the negroes in order to get them to work. So long as they were provided with something to eat it was impossible to get them to do anything whatever to better their condition. And it is more than likely that we shall see the same sort of thing over again in Porto Rico. It seems one of the hardest things in the world to impress upon the almoners that even charity needs to be wisely administered.

Pay Up.

A man noted for his failures to meet business obligations arose to speak. The subject was, "What shall I do to be saved?" He commenced slowly to quote the words, "What shall I do to be saved?" He paused, looked around, and repeated the words, when a voice from the assembly in clear and distinct tones replied, "Go and pay John Williams for that yoke of oxen." A great many people, before they can be saved or guide others to the Saviour, will have to "go and pay John Williams" the money they honestly owe him.—Jennie M. Bligham.

The Turkey Crop.

Just at this time the turkey crop is beginning to attract attention, as it is nearing maturity and will soon begin to move toward the markets. The high prices for turkeys last year, a great stimulus to their production, and the broad last spring were larger and more numerous than for many years before. It is estimated that the crop in this section is at least 30 per cent larger than the crop of last year, while reports from the West and Northwest indicate even a larger increase in those sections.—Winchester Democrat.

The increase in this country is estimated at about 20 per cent.

NEVER TOO OLD TO BE CURED

S. S. S. is a Great Blessing to

Old People. It Gives Them

New Blood and Life.

Age does not necessarily foreshadow ill health. Nearly all of the sick and older people can be avoided. Most elderly people are very susceptible to illness, but it is wholly unnecessary. By keeping their blood pure they can fortify themselves so as to escape three-fourths of the ailments from which they suffer so generally. S. S. S. is the remedy which will keep their systems young, by purifying the blood, thoroughly removing all waste accumulations and imparting new strength and life to the whole body. It increases the appetite, builds up the energies, and sends new life-giving blood throughout the entire system.

"I am seventy years old, and I was sick in different ways, and in addition had Eczema terribly on one of my legs. The doctor said there was no account of my age, I would never be well again. I took a dozen bottles of S. S. S. and it cured me completely, and I am happy to say that I feel as well as I ever did in my life."

Mr. J. W. Loving, of Colquitt, Ga., says: "For eighteen years I suffered tortures from a fiery eruption on my skin. I tried almost every known remedy, but they failed one by one, and I was told that my age, which is sixty-six, was against me, and that I could never hope to be well again. I finally took S. S. S. and it cleared my blood thoroughly, and now I am in perfect health."

is the only remedy which can build up and strengthen old people, because it is the only one which is guaranteed free from potash, mercury, arsenic and other damaging minerals. It is made from roots and herbs, and has no chemicals whatever in it. S. S. S. cures the worst cases of Scrofula, Cancer, Eczema, Rheumatism, Tetters, Open Sores, Chronic Ulcers, Boils, or any other disease of the blood.

Books on these diseases will be sent free by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

AN EGYPTIAN ARMY GUIDE.

Arab Who Proved of Much Help to the British Campaigners.

Our usual guide in the Galdul country was a merry little fellow called Zeki, very unlike the taciturn Arabs one generally met. He had been one of the two Arabs who had helped Sultan Pasha to escape from Oudman, and he told me that he was afterwards seized, taken in chains before the khalfia, and charged with the heinous offense. Zeki put on an air of extreme simplicity; pretended to be more than half a fool; said that he might have been given a dollar for getting some stranger a camel, but that he had forgotten; that he was a poor man, and a dollar was a dollar, and so on. The khalfia was completely imposed upon by these ingenious tactics, and said: "This man is an idiot, and let him go."

Zeki had lost his wife and children—killed by the dervishes—and had sworn a vendetta against them. When I first knew him he had just married again, and had established his bride in some remote valley in the Giffil hills; so, when we were out in that direction, he generally asked for a few hours' leave of absence, and used to trot off on his camel to visit her.—Cornhill.

Costume Musicals.

Costume musicals are the social fad of the moment. If the evening is to be devoted to Russian music, for instance, all the guests are invited to come in Russian costumes.

The Eagle King of All Birds.

I noted for it keen sight, clear and distinct visions. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, more eyes are any kind or granulated lids. Sold by all dealers at 25 cents.

To Our Readers.

In this issue appears the advertisement of Louis & Gus Struss the clothiers, of Lexington. When in that city and needing anything in their line call on them. They have been conspicuous in the clothing trade for many years and keep an extensive and well selected stock.

GOEBEL!

A Few of Our People Talk.

MINISTERS FOR GOEBEL.

THE HUMBLE FOR GOEBEL.

The Oppressors are Against Goebel.

Goebel is the People's Candidate

And Be Kentucky's Next Governor.

I love Goebel for the enemies he has made.—Hon. E. H. Threlkell, Owensboro, Ky.

I am for Goebel and shall vote for him.—Rev. J. W. Oliver, Lyon county. Ben Perkins is the only bolter in Todd county.—R. T. Daniels, Elkton Ky.

There are no bolters in Garrard county.—Hon. J. M. Logan, Lancaster, Ky.

Casey county is going strong for Goebel.—Rev. K. B. Mahoney, Stanford, Ky.

I know William Goebel. He is a man to trust.—Rev. W. T. Tibbs, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Goebel will carry Simpson county by 500 majority.—John Durham, Franklin, Ky.

I am for Goebel for Governor against the world, the flesh, and the devil.—Rev. R. L. West.

I am for Goebel and want to see him elected Governor.—Rev. W. F. Taylor, Shelbyville, Ky.

I am for Goebel and will stump the State for him.—Rev. B. F. Hungerford, Shelbyville, Ky.

I think Goebel is a great man and will take pleasure in voting for him.—Rev. W. S. Payne.

By actual count there are only four bolters in all Carter county.—Judge E. B. Willitt, Grayson, Ky.

Yes, I am for Goebel, because he is the friend of the oppressed.—Rev. William Stanley, Danville, Ky.

Set me down for Goebel.—Rev. Chas. Nourse, pastor Southern Presbyterian Church, Princeton, Ky.

I regard Goebel as the ablest Democrat in Kentucky, and I am for him.—Rev. E. Petty, Williamstown, Ky.

There is nothing in it but Goebel. The way he'll win will be a wonder.—Col. Ike Morgan, Harrodsburg, Ky.

I was in Kentucky. I would vote for Senator Goebel good and strong.—Hon. W. A. Carter, Paris, Tenn.

The Democrats of Putnam are solid for Goebel. No trouble with bolters there.—Hon. George W. Tate, Somerset, Ky.

Lozano and Warren counties will roll up their old-time Democratic majorities for Goebel.—Hon. J. B. Hines, Russellville, Ky.

I was against Goebel, but the L & N's free tickets are more than I can stand. I am for Goebel.—S. D. Neely, Franklin, Ky.

I have always been a Republican, but I shall work and vote for the election of Mr. Goebel.—Hon. Lee Turner, Middlesboro, Ky.

Henderson county, the home county of John Young Brown, will not poll over 50 votes for the bolting ticket.—Sterling Price, Henderson, Ky.

Goebel is a great man and deserves the support of every good man and citizen.—Rev. D. T. Dodge, pastor Cumberland Presbyterian church, Princeton, Ky.

There are no such things as bolters among the Democrats of our county (Calloway), and none in Todd county, where I married.—Mr. Charles L. Hill, Murray, Ky.

An incorruptible American citizen is the noblest work of God, and such a man is William Goebel.—Congressman Charles K. Wheeler.

I believe Mr. Goebel will make one of the best governors Kentucky has ever had. I am for him.—Hon. G. L. Hamilton, Hodgenville, Ky.

Goebel is the best and bravest Democrat that ever carried the party's banner in Kentucky.—Hon. Ward Headly, Caldwell county.

Brown can not poll over 50 votes in Union county, and not over that number in Henderson, our neighboring county.—W. C. Bland, Uniontown, Ky.

The statement that I am against Goebel is a lie. I am for him and will do all I can for him.—William Remington, editor Paris Democrat, Paris, Ky.

I am for Goebel for Governor, first, last and all the time, without qualification or mental reservation.—Rev. John O'Bryon, Madisonville, Ky.

Goebel will have no trouble in Daviess county whatever.—Col. Carey L. Appelgate, President of the Daviess County Public Warehouse Company, Owensboro, Ky.

We don't have bolters among the Democrats of Spencer county, and I hear of very few anywhere in our section of the State.—Hon. Charles Hough, Taylorville, Ky.

Hurrah for Goebel! Enclosed find my check for $100 for campaign purposes.—T. D. Lockett, Clarksville, Tenn., to the Democratic Committee of Trigg county.

The Democratic party was never in any better shape in Bell county and we will give an increased Democratic vote in November.—R. O. Cunningham, editor of the Middlesboro Record.

I believe Mr. Goebel stands between the people's rights and the greed of corporations, and in every way the poor man's friend.—T. H. Rankin, Berry, Ky. (Mr. Rankin has been a life-long Republican.)

We realize that J. Y. Brown is a stalking horse for Taylor, and Anderson county will give a large Democratic majority.—Hon. J. W. Shouse, Lawrenceburg, Ky.

I have known William Goebel for twenty years. In ability, he is the peer of any man, and his moral character is above reproach.—Hon. James B. McCreary, Richmond, Ky.

I have known William Goebel for a long time. He drove lottery gambling out of the State. He is the enemy of all gambling and vice, and every man in the State ought to vote for him.—Rev. W. B. Cooper.

I do not propose to aid the Taylor-Brown combination in their efforts to oppress the people of Kentucky. I am for Senator Goebel, and will do everything in my power to aid in securing his election.—Hon. T. F. Curley, Walton, Ky.

Goebel will be elected by 25,000 majority and my dear old friend John Brown will be buried beyond the heads of political resurrection or redemption.—Ex-Gov. T. T. Crittenden.

The best thing that can happen in the State is the election of the Democratic ticket, and I intend to vote for it, speak for it, and work for it.—Judge James P. Tarvin, Covington, Ky.

I am for Goebel because he is for the people, because his opponents and enemies have never yet showed me wherein I would be committing a wrong in voting for him, because the campaign being waged against him is a campaign of slander.—Rev. J. R. Crandall, pastor Methodist church, Hodgenville, Ky.

His life is a model for young Ken-

now. The people are talking and they will vote. The oppressors will vote against Goebel, because he is a man of determination and power and is the friend of the poor. It won't stop here, the colored people who for these 35 years have been in political slavery, paying for their freedom, want to be on the side of the poor man's friend and not a few of them will vote for Mr. Goebel.

Ext plenty, Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. It cures all forms of dyspepsia and stomach troubles. E. B. Gamble, Vernon, Texas, says, "It relieved me from the start and cured me. It is now my everlasting friend."

MARRIAGES.

It is rumored that ere long one of Mr. Sterling's business men will wed a young lady also of this city. Guess who.

FAULKNER-FOSTER.

On Thursday afternoon, September 28, 1899, at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride, near Spencer, Mr. L. C. Faulkner was united to Miss L. C. Foster. The ceremony was performed by B. W. Trimble, of the ADVOCATE. There were present about thirty friends. This is the second marriage of the groom. They went at once to his home on Somerset, having the best wishes of their friends.

DAVIS-YOUNG.

The family and friends of Miss Hallie Young were astonished vastly when Mr. Minot Davis, of Mr. Sterling came out to the Olympia Springs hotel Sunday and claimed her as his bride. It seems that they were recently wedded during the Elks' Fair at Lexington the past summer. The bride is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Young and has resided here with her parents for some years except during the past two summers when they were conducting the hotel at the Springs. She is a beautiful young woman, greatly admired in social circles, and has been carefully nurtured by her excellent mother, who lavished upon her daughter the boundless wealth of her maternal love and denied her no gratification within her power to grant.—Owingsville Outlook, Sept. 28.

Up-To-Date.

W. W. Wilson's meat market from early morning until the clock struck twelve Saturday night was one of the busiest parts of the city. Its attraction was such that the editor, who by chance passed that way was so impressed that he felt that men of so much enterprise and industry should have more than a passing notice. For some time we had noticed a marvelous improvement in the huckle about their queries, had observed that another large refrigerator had been added lately, that more men had been employed and that a spirit of thrift pervaded the department but we did not know what was coming for Saturday. The display would have done credit to any other large city.

The cuts of beef were beautiful and we might add delicious. Then there was the nice cuts of lamb and pork. It was also a fish market with salmon, white perch, large slice channel cat, bass, etc., and many other varieties. Also vegetables and fruits in season. The service was excellent and even late in the evening men tired from the hard days work were just as glad to see a customer as they were early in the morning.
